We have a passion for independent wholesaling and retailing. This passion results in a commitment to making a difference for our customers and providing them with benefits, including the lowest cost prices on products, financial benefits, marketing support and business development.

We strongly believe in making a real difference in the way we do business and view the sector, how we are perceived and how we treat our customers, colleagues, suppliers and those associated with them.

It is our vision to be the leader in our sector; we have our corporate eye firmly fixed on the future. Our aim is to make a positive difference within the independent wholesaling and retailing sectors.

At M9 we have values that are lasting and enduring. They are to be fair, mutual, entrepreneurial, and to be as ambitious for your business as we are for our own.

Partnership, strategic thinking, continuous growth & investment, experience, turnover and insight... When you look at all the different ways we support our customers, colleagues and suppliers you'll see what makes us such a winning team.

We make a difference to our customers, our colleagues, our suppliers and our sector.
